In "Being There," author David Codell shares his own experiences as a father, from the early days of sleepless nights and diaper changes to the joys and challenges of raising a child into adulthood. Codell's writing is honest, funny, and deeply moving, and his stories will resonate with any father who has ever loved and cared for a child.

In addition to Codell's own stories, this anthology also includes contributions from other talented writers, including Garrison Keillor, Bill Cosby, and Erma Bombeck. Each story is a unique and touching tribute to the father-child relationship, and together they offer a heartwarming and humorous look at the many ways that fathers and children can connect.

Whether your dad is a new father or a grandfather, he's sure to appreciate this collection of stories about the special bond between fathers and children. It's a gift that he'll cherish forever.
