Dennis grew up in a small town on the North Shore of Oahu. He started surfing at a young age, and quickly showed a natural talent for the sport. By the time he was a teenager, he was competing in professional surfing events. Dennis quickly rose through the ranks, and soon became one of the top surfers in the world.

In 1999, Dennis was diagnosed with cancer. He was given a 50% chance of survival. But Dennis didn't give up. He fought hard, and eventually beat cancer. After his cancer diagnosis, Dennis realized that he wanted to do more with his life than just surf. He wanted to help others. So he started the Dennis David Foundation, which provides financial assistance to cancer patients.

Dennis is an inspiration to everyone who knows him. He is a reminder that anything is possible, if you never give up on your dreams. His autobiography is a powerful and moving story that will leave you feeling inspired and motivated.
