Prison Baby Memoir is an inspiring and heartbreaking account of one woman's journey to find her identity, purpose, and freedom. Deborah Jiang Stein's story is a testament to the power of human resilience and the unbreakable bond between mother and child.

Deborah was born in a prison in Taiwan. Her mother, a political prisoner, was sentenced to life in prison for her involvement in a pro-democracy movement. Deborah spent the first seven years of her life in prison with her mother, before being adopted by an American family.

Deborah's early childhood was marked by poverty, instability, and abuse. She struggled to fit in at school and often felt like an outsider. It wasn't until she was in her late teens that she began to learn about her past and the circumstances of her birth.

Prison Baby Memoir is a powerful and moving story of one woman's journey to find her place in the world. Deborah's story is a reminder that even in the darkest of circumstances, hope can prevail.
