The Goldfinch by Donna Tartt

By Donna Tartt

Winner of the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction

The Goldfinch is a captivating novel that tells the story of Theo Decker, a young boy who survives a terrorist attack at the Metropolitan Museum of Art. In the aftermath of the tragedy, Theo is left with a profound sense of loss and guilt. He also finds himself in possession of a stolen painting, The Goldfinch, by Carel Fabritius.

As Theo grows older, he struggles to come to terms with his past and to find a place for himself in the world. The Goldfinch becomes a constant reminder of the loss he has experienced, but it also provides him with a sense of hope and connection to the beauty of the world.

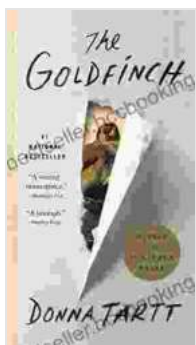

The Goldfinch is a beautifully written and moving novel that explores themes of art, loss, and redemption. It is a story that will stay with you long after you finish reading it.

"The Goldfinch is a masterpiece. Tartt's writing is exquisite, and her characters are unforgettable. This is a novel that will stay with you long after you finish reading it." - The New York Times

"The Goldfinch is a tour de force. Tartt has created a world that is both beautiful and heartbreaking. This is a novel that will challenge you and move you." - The Washington Post

"The Goldfinch is a must-read for anyone who loves great literature. Tartt is one of the most talented writers of our time, and this novel is her best work yet." - The Guardian
